OGA 2017 Aims To Draw 2,000 Companies

KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 30 (Bernama) -- The Asian Oil, Gas & Petrochemical Engineering Exhibition 2017 (OGA 2017) is targeting to attract the participation of over 2,000 companies in the event to be held from July 11-13 next year.

Malaysia External Trade Development Corporation Chief Executive Officer Datuk Dzulkifli Mahmud hoped there would be more Malaysian companies involved in the innovation and research and development of products and services in the industry, in line with Malaysia's aspirations to become the regional oil and gas hub by 2017.

"We are strong in the services industry, and where there is a need for infrastructure, equipment and installation services to provide the technical and know-how, we can help to produce the output," he said when officiating at the soft launch of OGA 2017 here today.....
