KEEPING THE ENERGY INDUSTRY CONNECTED

About Oil & Gas Asia

Building the right connections is key to growing your business.

OGA 2023 will take place from Sept 13-15 at Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre, marking its 19th edition as Southeast Asia's largest trade show for the oil, gas and petrochemical engineering industry.

Since 1987, OGA has played a pivotal role in bringing together a thriving platform for industry professionals to meet, source for latest solutions and tap business opportunities in all segments of oil and gas. It creates a vibrant atmosphere to network with representatives from government and key industry groups.

The packed programme includes thematic open sessions on the show floor, dedicated highlight events and unique engagement opportunities in three exciting days.

Welcome to OGA 2023.

VISITOR TESTIMONIALS

It is a good exhibition and show. I am here for networking purposes and to get more clients. I found suppliers for the products we need and I also managed to meet exhibitors who were looking for what my company had to offer. So, it was a win-win visit.

Steward Daniels,
Business Development Manager,
Aliran Optima Services Sdn Bhd, Malaysia

This is an important focal point for major suppliers worldwide especially for the area. I am from Italy, I know people are coming from everywhere in the world, this show is really important for major players in the world for oil and gas business.
