ABOUT OIL & GAS ASIA

Oil & Gas Asia (OGA) stands as Southeast Asia's most influential energy platform, driving industry evolution for nearly four decades. From its origins as Oil & Gas Malaysia in 1987 to its strategic rebranding in 2003, OGA has consistently anticipated and shaped regional energy trends, establishing itself as the definitive annual gathering for energy leaders across ASEAN and beyond.

With 21 successful editions behind us, OGA has generated billions in business value while fostering strategic partnerships that power regional energy growth. Our extensive network of local and international collaborators - from government agencies to multinational corporations - creates unparalleled opportunities for innovation, investment, and market expansion.

The 22nd edition embodies our commitment to leading the energy sector's sustainable transformation. As the industry navigates the critical balance between energy security and environmental responsibility, OGA serves as the essential platform where breakthrough technologies meet strategic capital, where regional expertise connects with global innovation, and where today's decisions shape tomorrow's energy landscape.

OGA has established itself as the premier catalyst for energy sector growth, consistently delivering transformational impact across Malaysia, ASEAN, and international markets. Through strategic collaborations and sustainable innovation leadership, OGA continues to drive progress towards a more resilient energy landscape.
